I ASSENT,

(RAJA IDRIS ISKANDAR SHAH),
Sultan of Perak

11th January, 1972.

An Enactment to make provisions for the pensions and gratuities of Members of the Administration and Members of the Legislative Assembly.

[1st January, 1970.]

IT IS HEREBY ENACTED by the Legislature of the State of Perak as follows:

1. This Enactment may be cited as the Members of the Administration and Members of Legislative Assembly (Pensions and Gratuities) Enactment, 1971, and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of January, 1970.

2. In this Enactment, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Member” means a Member of the Administration of the State as defined in Article 160 (2) of the Federal Constitution and includes a Member of the Legislative Assembly but does not include a Political Secretary who is not a Member of the Legislative Assembly;

“reckonable service” means the period during which a person is a Member whether continuously or in two or more separate periods; and for the purpose of calculating the length of a Member’s “reckonable service”, all periods of reckonable service shall be aggregated;

“salary” means—

(a) in relation to a Member of the Legislative Assembly the monthly allowance payable to him under the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Remuneration) Enactment, 1959;

(b) in relation to the Menteri Besar the salary payable to him under the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Remuneration) Enactment, 1959; and

(c) in relation to a member of the Executive Council the total monthly allowances payable to him under sub-sections (1) (b) and (c) of section 2 of the Legislative Assembly (Members’ Remuneration) Enactment, 1959, and

3. (1) A person who ceases to be a Member may be granted a pension if he has completed nine years reckonable service and if when he so ceases has attained or thereafter attains the age of forty-five years.

Pension for Members of the Administration.

(2) A pension under this section shall continue for the life of that person to whom it is payable but shall not be payable in respect of any period during which he is again a Member and is in receipt of a salary in respect thereof.

Special provisions for Menteri Besar or members of Executive Council becoming back-bencher.

Minimum pension for Menteri Besar.

Rate of Pension.

4. Notwithstanding sub-section (2) of section 3, a Member who does not hold the office of Menteri Besar or who is not a member of the Executive Council may be granted a pension under sub-section (1) of that section if he has previously served as Menteri Besar or as a member of the Executive Council for a period of not less than three years (whether continuously or otherwise).

5. Notwithstanding section 6, a Member who has held the office of Menteri Besar for a period of not less than 4 years (either continuously or otherwise) may be granted a pension under section 3 or section 4, as the case may be, of not less than $1,000 per month.

6. (1) The pension payable under section 3 shall be calculated at the rate of 1/540 of the annual salary of the Member for each completed month of reckonable service including any period during which he was in receipt of a pension under section 4.

(2) The pension payable under section 4 shall be calculated at the rate of 1/540 of the annual salary of the Member for each completed month of reckonable service prior to his last ceasing to hold office of Menteri Besar or to be a member of the Executive Council.

(3) The maximum pension due in either case as aforesaid shall be in respect of 240 completed months of reckonable service.

(4) The salary which shall be taken to compute the pension in any particular case as aforesaid shall be one-third of the total salary received during any 36 months of reckonable service (whether this period be continuous or otherwise) where the salary was at its maximum point or points.

7. (1) A person may be granted a gratuity—
 (a) on his death while being a Member;
 (b) when he ceases to be a Member but not solely by reason of the dissolution of Legislative Assembly;
 Provided that where the Member is a Menteri Besar or a member of the Executive Council at his option, when he ceases to hold such office, or to be such a member;
 (c) where he is a Member, at his option, at the dissolution of Legislative Assembly.

Gratuity.

(2) The salary which shall be taken to compute the gratuity in any particular case shall be one-third of the total salary received during any 36 months of reckonable service (whether this period be continuous or otherwise) where the salary was at its maximum point or points, or, where the reckonable service is less than three years, the average expressed on an annual basis of the salary drawn by him over the period of his reckonable service.

(3) The amount of gratuity shall be calculated at the rate of 1/96 of the annual salary of the Member for each completed month of reckonable service subject to a maximum gratuity due in respect of 240 months.

(4) Any period of reckonable service in respect of which a gratuity or cash award has been paid to a Member in respect of his service prior to the commencement of this Enactment or any period of reckonable service in respect of which a gratuity has been previously paid under the provisions of this Enactment shall be disregarded for the purpose of calculating a gratuity that falls due to be paid under this Enactment.

(5) Where a Member dies and a gratuity under this section is granted, such gratuity may be paid to such of his dependants as the Ruler may decide or if there are no dependants, to his legal personal representative.

8. Pensions under this Enactment may be paid monthly at the end of each month in which the pension falls due or at such other intervals as the Ruler may determine either generally or in any particular case.

Payment of pensions.

9. A pension or gratuity granted under this Enactment shall not be assignable or transferable except for the purpose of satisfying—

Pension and gratuity not to be assignable.

- (a) a debt due to the Government; or
- (b) an Order of any court for the payment of periodical sums of money towards the maintenance of the wife or former wife or minor child of the Member to whom the pension has been granted, but shall not be liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for or in respect of any debt or claim whatever except a debt due to the Government.

10. (1) No pension or gratuity shall be granted under this Enactment to any Member, who has become disqualified for membership under circumstances described in Article XXXI (1) (e) and (g) of the First Part of the Laws of the Constitution of Perak.

Pension or gratuity not to be paid under certain circumstances.

(2) If any Member to whom a pension has been granted under this Enactment has become disqualified for membership under circumstances described in Article XXXI (1) (e) and (g) of the First Part of the Laws of the Constitution of Perak, the pension shall forthwith cease:

Provided that the pension shall be restored with retrospective effect in the case of a Member whose disqualification under Article XXXI (1) (e) is removed by the Ruler.

Payment out of Consolidated
Fund.
Regulations.

*For Regulations
See Pk. Pu. 51/77*

11. Any pension or gratuity payable under this Enactment shall be paid out of the State Consolidated Fund.

12. (1) The Ruler may make regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions of this Enactment.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1) regulations made under that sub-section may provide that notwithstanding anything in this Enactment where a person prior to being a Member was a Member of either House of Parliament, the period (continuous or otherwise) during which such person was a Member of either House of Parliament may be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the length of his reckonable service.

P. Encl. 2/77

Saving.

(3) Any regulations made under this section shall be laid before the Legislative Assembly.

Subject to Section 6A,
13. Nothing in this Enactment shall affect the provisions of the Legislative Assembly (Members' Remuneration) Enactment, 1959 relating to accident benefits for Members.

19.3.1963 or 18 Jan
14. Where a person was a Member on 1st January, 1970, any period (continuous or otherwise) prior to that date but not earlier than 31st August, 1957 may be taken into account for the purpose of calculating the length of his reckonable service.

*Subs. Order
